Local student publishes book

Las Vegas, October 21, 2010 – Sydney Cohen Willis wrote a book called "The E X Fighters" when she was 8-9 years old and it was published when she was 10. Now at 12 years old, she is busy with the sequel. She is almost done with this. It is an action packed juvenile fiction book. It is about 2 sisters and a brother from Henderson, NV who have to move to Japan with their mom, and have very special powers, unbeknownst to them at the beginning. They end up working together, along with 2 friends that they meet, and save Japan and the world from the evil, Dr. Evyl. This book is perfect for any child ages 8-12 or so.

Sydney has participated in past years in school/ team sports including girl's basketball, girl's volleyball, and fencing. Sydney loves playing the guitar, skateboarding, and playing video games. She also loves to draw and did the cover of her book, which can be seen at Amazon.com or Xlibris.com. As per the back of the book, she lives with her mom, Lisa Cohen, and her sister, Sasha Zuraff. Her dad lives very close by with her step mom and other sister, Samantha Willis. She is a straight A student in 7th grade at Bob Miller Middle School in all accelerated/ honors classes. She loves to write and read books. She has written over 25 books and short stories.

She has been invited to be in the 2010 Las Vegas Children's Book Festival on Saturday 11/6/10 from 10 am until 3 pm. She will be there signing copies of her book and discussing the book with anyone interested. Admission s free and the day will be fun and full of authors, books, food, and face painting.
